

L. S. McCABE DIES AFTER BEING ILL ONLY FEW WEEKS

Head of Pioneer Mercantile Establishment Succumbs to Apoplectic Stroke at Age of 65.

ONE OF THE BUILDERS OF CITY

Had Been in Business in Rock Island Continuously 46 Years—Extensive Property Owner.

Hon. L. S. McCabe, one of the most prominent merchants in the middle west, banker, church worker and one of the largest individual property owners in Rock Island, died at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon at his residence on Fifth avenue, following a short illness. Although the end was expected, the news of his passing came as a shock to his host of friends in this community and spread gloom over the business circles of the tri-city.

Although Mr. McCabe had been failing for the past few weeks, his condition did not become serious until Thursday, when he suffered a stroke of apoplexy while in the morning. From that time he lay in a comatose unconsciousness from which he did not revive. Members of the family were at the bedside when the end came.

Mr. McCabe was a native of Ireland, born in New York, and was born Dec. 12, 1844. He was educated in the common schools and graduated from the Rock Island high school in 1862. Coming west in 1862, he was employed in the Rock Island county. He taught school for two terms in Drury township during the time that the late Hon. W. H. Wood was governor of Illinois.

COULD NOT STAND ON FEET

Mrs. Baker So Weak—Could Not Do Her Work—Found Relief In Novel Way.

Adrian, Mich. — "I suffered terribly with female weakness and headache and got so weak that I could hardly do my work. When I washed my dishes I had to sit down and when I would sweep the floor I would get so weak that I would have to get a drink every few minutes, and before I did my dusting I would have to lie down. I got so poorly that my folks thought I was going into consumption. One day I found a piece of paper blowing around the yard and I picked it up and read it. It said 'Second from the Grave,' and told what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for women. I showed it to my husband and he said, 'Why don't you try it?' So I did, and after I had taken two bottles I felt better and I said to my husband, 'I don't need any more,' and he said 'You had better take it a little longer anyway.' So I took it for three months and got well and strong." — Mrs. Alexander E. Baker, 6 Cornudas St., Adrian, Mich.

Not Well Enough to Work. In many ways to lighten the burden of many a woman, household or wage earner who supports herself and is often helping to support a family, on money wages. Whether in house, office, factory, shop, store or kitchen, woman should remember that there is one tried and true remedy for the ills to which all women are prone, and that is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It promotes that vigor which makes work easy. The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Buy Land Now

You can make no better investment right now than to buy Western farm land—and do it before the high prices and great demand for agricultural products forces a big increase in values. In the Big Horn Basin and in the North Platte Valley, irrigated farms are being cut in two and offered for sale on very favorable terms. All crops there are the heaviest on record. You can secure a Government irrigated farm near Powell, Wyo., at almost as a gift. Ask about this. The value of this year's crop, on thousands of acres in Nebraska and Colorado, is equal to the original cost of the land.

If you are not fixed to buy, even on easy terms, take a 320-acre Mondell homestead in Wyoming, for mixed dairy farming. Look the West over now. You can ride all day through miles and miles of bumper crops and make your own deduction as to what this condition means to the man who will buy land in these localities now.

PIONEER MERCHANT IS CALLED TO REST

essential in organizing and developing many of the prominent and successful industries and business enterprises of the county. He was a director and vice president of the Moline Central Street Railway company, when that line was built and equipped with electricity. This was one of the first electric street railways built and operated in the west. He was also a member and promoter of Prospect park in Moline and later when his traction and power holdings were absorbed by the Des Moines Traction and Light company, he became a large stockholder in the company.

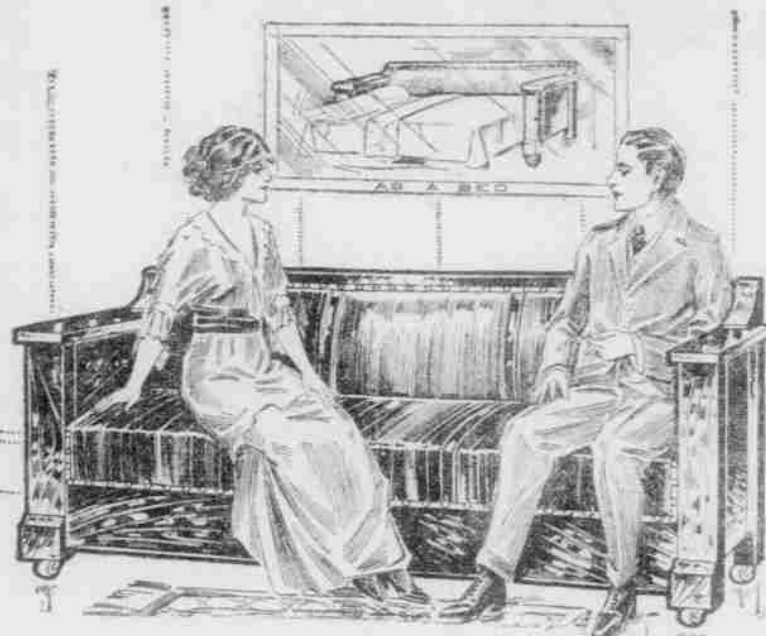

Sent to State Senate. In 1902 he was elected by the republican party to represent the 35th district in the state senate and after serving a term of four years he declined to again become a candidate for that office, as his business interests demanded so much of his personal attention.

Mr. McCabe was an active member of the Broadway Presbyterian church and president of the Broadway Men's club. He was a charter member of the Rock Island club and had never been more than a few days away from his home in Rock Island. For years before the time of one of Rock Island's principal mercantile institutions, his sympathies, active and all were much toward and invariably given to every important public undertaking. As a diversion and pleasant relaxation from the cares naturally attendant upon the head of a great mercantile house, Mr. McCabe became an active and active owner of good stock and wine. He owned and operated several farms in this county and in Scott county, Iowa, and among his chief pleasures was the entertaining of friends at the summer home on the bluff overlooking the Mississippi, the showing of his great herds of Angus cattle and the discussion of his various farming projects and in planning self improvement and development.

In Business 46 Years. Mr. McCabe began his business career in mercantile lines in Rock Island, Ill., in 1862, and had been in business in Rock Island continuously for 46 years. The small store which he opened at that time has developed into one of the largest department stores in this community, occupying two stories and extending from Third avenue through to Second. Mr. McCabe began in business in a small store on Sixth street and Second avenue, then known as Bullfinch and Illinois streets. The store was but a small establishment, with only a few departments. Associated with Mr. McCabe was his brother, J. W. McCabe, who later located in Des Moines. J. W. McCabe retired from the retail business over 25 years ago. About the same time that he entered in business here Mr. McCabe opened a store in Davenport, and in later years his interests were extended to a number of cities and at one time his chain of stores included one in Chicago.

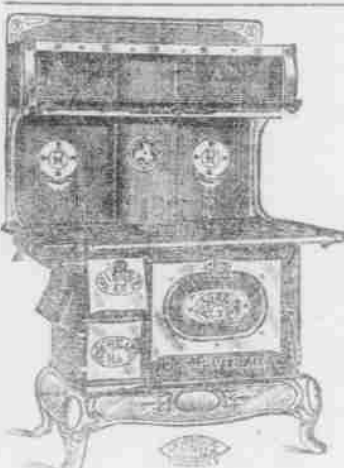

The growth of the McCabe store has been steady. From the original location it was moved to the east side at the Mitchell & Lynde block, now the State bank building. Then Mr. McCabe acquired the Gaylord block on Second avenue between Seventeenth and Eighteenth streets, which is now the Second avenue store. In 1900 it became necessary to extend the quarters of the institution and the Third avenue block was erected, giving the

REVOLVER SHOTS STIR BLACK BELT

Alleged Jealousies Cause Colored Man and a Woman to Shoot at Their Visitors.

WIFE FIRES, BUT MISSES MARK

Her Dred of the Morning Is Repeated at Night When Mexican Calls at Griggsby Home.

Rock Island's black belt was thrown into a fever Saturday, once in the morning when a woman shot at another because of jealousy, and again in the evening when a colored man shot at a Mexican for the same reason. None of the shots hit its mark. Seven arrests were made by the police Saturday night, but all of those apprehended, excepting the man and woman who did the shooting, were released and ordered out of town. John Griggsby, 2615 Fifth avenue, was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail in default of a fine of $200 and costs. His wife, Mary Griggsby, was given a similar term on the same charge. The shooting Saturday morning followed a meeting at the Griggsby home of the Griggsby woman and Bertha Dunbar. The Griggsby woman, although the wife of a colored man, is white. The Dunbar woman is colored. It seems that the Griggsby woman was suspicious of her visitor and words followed between the two in which the alleged affection of the Dunbar woman for Griggsby was brought up. The controversy terminated when the Griggsby woman secured a revolver and fired at her visitor, who fled uninjured. The police at that time made no arrests.

Shoots at Mexican.

Saturday night a Mexican, whose name the police did not secure, appeared at the Griggsby home. Griggsby questioned him, and suspicious that his wife had been meeting him, secured the same revolver and chased the Mexican, sending a rain of lead after him. As far as is known the Mexican was not hit.

The latter incident caused greater excitement than that of the morning, and the police were called. Chief Miller, Detective Cox and Officer Kinney went to the Griggsby home and arrested everybody in the house. Mr. and Mrs. Griggsby, Lucian Davis, Lucille Burton, William Dunbar, Bertha Dunbar and Bud Little were taken into custody, but the latter five were released today.

Failed to Catch the Tune.

A professor in an old Pennsylvania college was conducting a review in Latin. Of a sleepy looking youth he asked the question, "What construction is that at the top of page 12?" "I don't know," was the prompt reply. "What's not?" thundered the professor.

"I have been harping on that construction all term." "I know you have, professor," was the soft reply, "but I haven't caught the tune yet."
